Happy Birthday Jane

The Enemy

Good mornin, Jane
Happy birthday once again
What would we do
What would we do without you
Without you?Wake up, the sun is shining
Shining for you
To take all your troubles away
Just for a day
To take all your troubles away
Just for a day, for a daySo goodnight, Jane
Happy birthday once again
Now what will we do
What will we do without you
Without you?Wake up, the sun is shining
Shining for you
To take all your troubles away
Just for a day
To take all your troubles away
Just for a day, for a dayHappy birthday, happy birthday
Happy birthday, happy birthday, Jane
Happy birthday, happy birthday
Happy birthday, JaneHappy birthday, happy birthday
Happy birthday, Jane
Happy birthday, Jane
