Crush

Chloe Day

on a mad crush
it was there on the walls
when we started to fall out of tune

you
were a fire
and it burned me to find that i could never shine
quite so true

fallen ember
i'm still waiting
bide my tunes for tears

rush
such a mad rush
you just had to make tracks swore you'd never look back
for me

fallen ember
i'm still waiting

shine... you can't help but shine and that face in the gloss holds no meaning or loss
for me

fallen ember
i'm still waiting
look so broken
can't you face me
find your way back
home
