OK I Lied

Goldwash

Promise to make some changes
Soothe out the rise and fall
Even we think basics
That you are never saw(?)
Right where we got complacent
You break out the ties of war
So if I don't feel creative
Who will I pray for(?)

Try to play
That I don't really need you
But OK
I was lying just to keep you
To keep you

'Cause it's a fucking lonely world
Whenever you leave
I might risk it all
I won't let you slip away
Said it's a fucking lonely world
Whenever you leave
I would risk it away
I won't let you slip away

So don't slip away

Promise to make some changes
Whatever time is ours(?)
I can't stop replaying your movements
And it slays me how much I love

The way you bite my lip
When I go to kiss you goodbye
But OK
I was lying just to keep you
To keep you

'Cause it's a fucking lonely world
Whenever you leave
I might risk it all

I won't let you slip away
Said it's a fucking lonely world
Whenever you leave
I would risk it away
I won't let you slip away

So don't slip away
From me baby(?)
Don't slip away
So don't slip away
From me baby
Don't slip away
So don't slip away
Don't slip away
Don't slip away
(Don't slip away)
