

Dreamtime

Star One

This is the voice of Merlin. listen well, for it concerns you. This chronicle commences in the year 2084 a.d.

Mankind has virtually destroyed itself. It's survival depends on 'the final experiment'. Let us go back to the dark ages...dark ages...dark ages...[Russell:]

A cry in the silence

A shine in the dark

Like a rising star

The dream is coming Images of violence

A flight through time and space

It's such a lonely place

The dream has started [Russell and Floor:]

The smoke is rising

The vision's getting clearer

And words become a song [Russell:]

In the dreamtime I've lost control

Marooned and cold

I suffer the fears

Of a future untold

I cannot change

The shape of things to come [Russell and Floor:]

The smoke is rising

The vision's getting clearer

And words become a song [Russell:]

In the dreamtime
