My Secret Flame

The Mavericks

You'll never know
I'll never tell
I've learned to hide
My feelings wellMy heart beats fast
When it hears your name
And you'll always be
My secret flameYou've got someone
Who holds your heart
To say anythin'
Would not be smartBut my love for you
Will never change
And you'll always be
My secret flameI have this dream
Of me and you
I pray someday, some way
It will come trueSo I'll trust in time
You'll feel the same
And then you'll be
My secret flameI have this dream
Of me and you
And I pray someday, some way
It will come trueSo I sleep alone
But not in vain
And each night I hold
My secret flameAnd you'll always be
My secret flame
