My Secret Flame

The Mavericks

You'll never know I'll never tell I've learned to hide My feelings wellMy heart beats fast When it hears your name And you'll always be My secret flameYou've got someone Who holds your heart To say anythin' Would not be smartBut my love for you Will never change And you'll always be My secret flameI have this dream Of me and you I pray someday, some way It will come trueSo I'll trust in time You'll feel the same And then you'll be My secret flameI have this dream Of me and you And I pray someday, some way It will come trueSo I sleep alone But not in vain And each night I hold My secret flameAnd you'll always be My secret flame
