Mind Games (Piano Mix)

Izzy

Yesterday started with a, a battle cry
Today I found myself, asking why
Oh why

I picked up the pieces of a, a shadow dream
And now Iâ€™m reliant on you to keep me on my feet

Help me
Save me

Mind games, mind games
Playinâ€™ with my heart strings and forming a melody
Softly singing of magic tricks and feelings that I cant feel
My heart is numb, my head is feverish
But I donâ€™t know your leaving us behind
To finish what you started
Over power love is crumbling
Your mind games finally caught on back up to you

Tomorrow marks the start of, a brand new day
Your words they hurt me but my mind blocks out the pain
I no longer feel the sting of hypnotizing eyes
Shout something irrelevant at me and maybe Iâ€™ll cry
Youâ€™ll never help me
Youâ€™ll canâ€™t save me

Ohhh, Mind games, mind games
Playinâ€™ with my heart strings and forming a melody
Softly singing of magic tricks and feelings that I cant feel
My heart is numb, my head is feverish
But I donâ€™t know your leaving us behind
To finish what you started
Over power love is crumbling
Your mind games finally caught on back up to you

Donâ€™t get me wrong it hurts like Hell
We had so much going for us
Who had to see me up so rare
I thought maybe you actually cared
The jig is up

I know your tricks
There ainâ€™t no magic behind it
Just lies and cover ups
I tried recovering us, but you were to far gone

Mind games, mind games
Playinâ€™ with my heart strings and forming a melody
Softly singing of magic tricks and feelings that I cant feel

Ohhh, Mind games, mind games
You riped my heart out at the seams and lost all the melodies
Softly screaming apologies and feelings that you wonâ€™t feel
My head is done, my headâ€™s up in flames
But you wonâ€™t win, I can handle the shame
I know Iâ€™m finally finished what you started
Over power love is crumbling
Your mind games finally caught on, back up to you

Everyday starts out with a, a battle cry
Tomorrow I promis you though, you wonâ€™t be why
