5 Miles to Empty

Brownstone

Oh yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Oh yeah, oh yeah, yeah, yeah, yeahOh baby, can we sit down and talk for a minute
You know that we've got a few things
We need to work out, oh yeah
You can spare me all your sorry details
Had enough of all your lies
And my silence cries(Hurry, hurry, quick, quick)
I need a man who's gonna do me right
(Hurry, hurry, quick, quick)
Somebody who will surely satisfy
(When I think of your love)
It only makes me stop and wonder
Truly why, oh why
(Why, oh why, why would you make me cry, oh baby)5 miles to empty
My heart is running low, whoa
I need it to fill me up
I need it to give me love, yeah5 miles to empty
My heart is running low, whoa
I need it to fill me up
I need it to give me loveWe spend so much time
We're always fighting desperately trying for love
We know won't last much longer, no, no, but baby
Such a waste of time when we're praying though
Some are saying that we won't last much longer than a day
No, no, no, no, no(Hurry, hurry, quick, quick)
I need a man who's gonna do me right
(Hurry, hurry, quick, quick)
Somebody who is gonna satisfy my needs
(When I think of your love)
It only makes me stop and wonder
Truly why, oh why
(Why, oh why, why would you make me cry, oh baby)5 miles to empty
My heart is running low, woh
I need a good man to fill me up
I need a good man to give me love, yeah baby5 miles to empty
My heart is running low, woh
I need a good man to fill me up
I need a good man to give me love5 miles to empty

My heart is running low, woh
I need a good man to fill me up
I need a good man to give me love, yeah5 miles to empty
My heart is running low, who
I need a good man to fill me up
I need a good man to give me love(Hurry, hurry, quick, quick)
Oh, I need a man who will promise to always do right
(Hurry, hurry, quick, quick)
Oh, looking for someone who's gonna satisfy
(When I think of your love)
It only makes me stop and wonder
Truly wonder, oh why
(Why, oh why, why would you make me cry, oh baby)5 miles to empty
My heart is running low, woh
I need a good man to fill me up
I need a good man to give me love, yeah5 miles to empty
My heart is running low, woh
I need a good man to fill me up
I need a good man to give me love5 miles to empty
My heart is running low, woh
I need a good man to fill me up
I need a good man to give me love, yeah5 miles to empty
My heart is running low, woh
