

Rise

Gang of Thieves

The world's all around me here by the bridge
The leaves keep on dying but they're not mine to give
Blow it all away and take me there alone
Lay me down above the clouds to dream of coming home

Rise and take me higher
What a lovely, lovely place
To let it slip away
Rise, take me higher
And as I float away
Softly hear it say

A cloak of your silence soaks in a stream
Shower me with falling stars but don't deny my dreams
Trace the land, caress the sea, just another day
Raise your voice to dynasties and carry us away

Rise and take me higher
What a lovely, lovely place
To let it slip away
Rise, take me higher
And as I float away
Softly hear it say

Rise and take me higher
What a lovely, lovely place
To let it slip away
Rise, take me higher
And as I float away
Softly hear it say

Form in the sands of time
And soar with no desire
Form in the sands of time
And soar with no desire
Form in the sands of time
And soar with no desire
Form in the sands of time
And soar with no desire
