Blessing In Disguise

Edguy

Living in a screenplay she neve r read the end and no one else is to see..
The pain of abrasions covered with a smile no one's to look underneathIn a lonesome night she ran away in quest for light and then she found fire....Flying on broken wings Uprising from the ruins
Living on broken dreams
What a night to come alive
Living on broken wings
What a blessing in disguise
A blessing in disguiseYou're a star in a comedy never proofread by yourself so that wicked sense of humour is divine?
And the cries of a bleeding child may become a vow..
Nevermore you'll fall into lineEvery long cold night you dream-oh Rain on you pain on you scream your desireFlying on broken wings
Uprising from the ruins
Living on broken dreams
What a night to come alive
Living on broken wings
What a blessing in disguise..
A blessing in disguiseSolo:JensFlying...
