

Wonderful Life

Nick Cave & The Bad Seeds

Come in, babe, across these purple fields
The sun has sunk behind you across these purple fields
That idiot-boy in the corner is speaking deviated truths
Come on, admit it, babe, it's a wonderful life If you can find it, if you can find it
If you can find it, it's a wonderful life that you bring Ooh it's a wonderful thing Speak our secret into your hands and hold it in between Plunge your hands into the water and drown it in the sea
There will be nothing between us, baby, but the air that we breathe
Don't cry, it's a wonderful, wonderful life
If you can find it, if you can find it
If you can find it, it's a wonderful life that you bring
It's a wonderful, wonderful thing We can build our dungeons in the air and sit and cry the blues
We can stomp across this world with nails hammered through our shoes
We can join that troubled chorus who criticise and accuse
It don't matter much, no we got nothing much to lose but this wonderful life If you can find it, and when you find it
And when you find it, it's a wonderful life that you bring It's a wonderful, wonderful, wonderful thing Sometimes our secrets are all we've got with our lives we must defend
Sometimes the air between us, babe, is unbearably thin Sometimes it's wise to lay down your gloves and just give in Come in, come in, come in, come in to this wonderful life If you can find it, and if you find it
It's a wonderful life that you bring
It's a wonderful, wonderful thing
It's a wonderful life, it's a wonderful life
It's a wonderful life, it's a wonderful life
It's a wonderful life, it's a wonderful life
