

Confusion and Clarity

Andrew W.K.

In the midst of all the doubt
All the uncertainty
All the frustration
All the confusion
We must never lose sight
Of the parts of life
That we're absolutely clear about
The parts of life that bring us
Undeniable and reliable joy
These are sacred
They give us strength
They give us pure physical
And emotional energy
And that purely good feeling
That tells us that life
Really is worth living
Even when it's hard
The truest part of ourself
Is found inside the clarity of this feeling
This feeling is the life-force
It lives inside the undeniable love
That we have for the people
And aspects of life
That bring out the best we have to offer
Let this love define us
Let our spirit be fortified
By this loving clarity
This love is our destiny
And our ultimate quest
Is to protect it
To amplify it
And to rejoice
In sharing its power
With all the world
