

I Like the Way You Talk

Blackalicious

I like the way you talk
I like the way you fuck
I like-I like-I like-I like-I like
The way you fuck I'm better than the average letterman
You better plan ahead instead of rant I'm sending steady telegraph
In poems you'll never ever grasp
The cleve, vast, and relevant
Misstep and I'll thrash all through your metal bastard
Like an elephant
My end expands forever
Every chance I get to tear a jam
I'm trending, mad shit my endeavor hella better evidence
Of verbal (?) I'm spitting trash
My man begin again
My mind is militant and will reveal your little innocence
The citizens of villages be like a gift (?)
My nigga can you spit again and kill them with your infinite
Flow (?) and exit with your chicken head
Right when we fled the premises
She leaned right in my ear and said
So talkative, amount to live the life of mountains
Shift just now and then my style offends
But only if your albums gripped
A pile of emcess bound up (?)
Just to (?)
Its so fresh asounding
With these records ayll ain't shit to us
Your non-existent flow will fall in shit
You step inside of our existence
(?) and call your mama just to save you from the drama
This is (?) call your doctor
Get your karma forming all inside your noggin
Stolen with them rhymes
Its sounding like I was one-on-one to toddlers
Barely walking round this new place
Cool with slobber dripping out my mouth
I'm gaga in it, boo boo in this
Voodoo when you step into new energy
I fool you when you kick them zippo rhymes

That you do when you rap
Fool you in a trap, see and you doo-doo in your pants
Rule you with a crayon
Iron hand gon' do you with a lance
As my mind expands I enhance
Do you feel my wrath?
Your girl had told me Gabby
I (?)

[But anyway I did hear you on the radio today If you were tuned into my show then you had an experience
I produce, write, and direct my own material for both radio and television

Because I owe them
Just another one of those things that makes me so special
