

Sad Sad Feet

Cate Le Bon

Did you wake in the morning with the sun in your eyes?
But you don't have a song to sing for your love
I rock the beat, but I don't have time
And I don't have a song to sing for my love
Sad sad feet and sad sad eyes
I'll go blind to save you, not gone looking to take it back
It's just, baby, I'm headed for the black Well I like what I like and I like what I know
Even when the day starts humming
I like the fields but I just can't go
'Cause there's a dark cloud coming
Sad sad feet and sad sad eyes
I'll go blind to save you, not gone looking to take it back
It's just, baby, I'm headed for the black
Sad sad feet and sad sad eyes
I'll go blind to save you, not gone looking to take it back
It's just, baby, I'm headed for the black
