

Spirit

Lewis Taylor

Oh spirit of soul
One lie too many
Nothing matters anymore
Who would have chosen this way
It's not as if we've paid for any sin
But can there be a space for true love within
Oh spirit of soul
My heart weakens
There's a burning through the hole
In our poor situation
Wonder if your God is really real
There doesn't seem to be no cure for how I feel
Weel I despair
But I usually play the game
For the heartbroken
We always wind up the same
Oh spirit of soul
I don't know where you've been
Sometimes I get to feeling like I'm never gonna win
All of the tears in my eyes
Like rain from above
Wouldn't wash away the pain
When you lose somebody's love
And I need somebody
To take me under their care
Tell me I'm needed somewhere
Spirit away my blues
Please help me
