

Are We Free

A Telemetry

pack of lies
bury all you can

face the actions
face the cries
and always show that smile

burns you down to cinder time to wake
set that new course

are we free - are we ready
to leave this crowd
it won't be hard

to leave the scene
destination far - evaporated

losing battle
same old joke
people are so lost

racing changes
racing time
nothing settles this game

just enough to harness
all your thoughts
dump the meaning

it's enough to cook you good it's enough to draw you in it's enough to stretch you strait as an arrow
far beyond and far away

hit by runaround
spun towards you

plotted by some clown

trace the footsteps
trace the smell
that only leads to garbage

now hold fast and move quick do a dance
void all contact
