

Brother's Boat (In Session)

Eliza And The Bear

We felt the ocean air,
In your brothers boat.
He felt the time was right
    To let it go
    To let it go
    let it go (oh)
    Cause when i'm old
    my bones don't creak
    but I am shaking in my sleep
    I am shaking in my sleep
    I am shaking in my sleep
    You let your family go
    When you let your family home
    You let your family go
    When you let your family home
    Just let it go
    Just let it go
    Just let it go (go)
    I ask of you to walk for me
    Because my bones ain't what they used to be
    I only ask of you to walk for me
    Because my bones ain't what they used to be
    I only ask of you to walk for me (we still call them houses)
    Because my bones ain't what they used to be (do ya)
    I only ask of you to walk for me (do ya)
    Becasue my bones ain't what they used to be (do ya)
        You let your family go
        You let your family go
        You let your family go
        You let your family go
    End
