Restless Leg

Har Mar Superstar

Ooo sometimes a mind starts to wander
Oh he slips as he bubbles down the street
Making a farther relationship stronger
If I let it go it'll come back to me
This time he don't wanna stay
Like a glacier he's breaking away
He'll crack yeah he'll melt all feelings ever felt.
Well I guess I'm stuck here with my faulty brain.Oh every day I lose so much knowledge
On basic speech and things I learned in college.
Though I try not to leave,
I just cannot be in one place, no, no.I got a restless leg and restless heart,
A restless head ready to depart.
I've got a restless soul and restless arms,
Well I must keep on moving.
Restless eyes I need to dry,
When I'm gone girl please don't cry,
A restless leg keeps me alive.Ooo sometimes my heart will just start achin,
She's so tired and she's giving up on me.
So tired of waiting, she's slowly breaking
But the open road will bring her back to me.Every day I lose so much knowledge from basic speech to things I learned in college.
Though I try not to leave,
I just cannot be in one place,
I won't be contained.I got a restless leg and restless heart,
A restless head ready to depart.
I've got a restless soul and restless arms,
Well I must keep on moving.
Restless eyes I need to dry,
When i'm gone girl please don't cry,
A restless leg keeps me alive.
Shake shake a leg, oh-oh.
