LET GO OR BE DRAGGED

(Stephen Kellogg/P.J. Pacifico)

Jack Roetter Music ASCAP

Paul P Music ASCAP You could have been, my always and everywhere

Where to begin? And how'd we get here?

The house is sounding like an echo dying out

Did we try hard enough? Can't think about that now CHORUS

I won't stop

I won't wait

I hate to see you second guess and hesitate

You get dragged if you don't let go, at least you always told me so... We missed a lot, staring at a little screen

Perfect or not, I almost miss that old routine

You never think about the way you make your bed

With just one side turned down, and vacancy instead CHORUS If could read a script of every word we said

There'd be some romance and a bit of emptiness

As the final curtain fell, I guess it would show

Some things you fight for and some things you just let go Let Go Or Be Dragged
