Transatlantic Flight

Lovebugs

i get to the airport
around ten to three
then i pass the border cigarettes and duty freei find a fashion magazine to pass the time
now i really miss you
girl but i still feel finei get on the airplane with my old guitar
someone's staring at me
yeah it's true baby
i am a startransatlantic flight
i'm alright
no gravity no night
flying out of sight
transatlantic flight
hold on tight
no, i'm not scared of heightsuh uh uh uh uhhhh uh uh uh uh uhhhhi look out the window watch the streets fade away now i'm almost crying
maybe i should have stayedi'm flying so high above the clouds we got so far then i loose myself
yeah it's true baby
i'm alright
no gravity no night
flying out of sight
transatlantic flight
hold on tight
uh uh uh uh uhhhh
