Save Me

Divinyls

When I'm looking back upon my secrets I have held so long
I think it's about time to share my booty with the one who'll dare
Save me, save me today
Save me today, c'mon and save me
What am I merely a woman
If I am innocent I'd be your friend
My thoughts are primal and must be protected
My thoughts are carnal I can no longer pretend
When I'm looking back upon my secrets I have held so long

My treasure chest I'll lay it bare my secrets that I keep down there
Save me, save me today save me today, c'mon and save me
What am I merely a woman
If I am innocent I'd be your friend
My thoughts are primal and must be protected
My thoughts are carnal I can no longer pretend
If I am hunted I'd be that game
If I am the hunter then what's your name
If I am the prey then take me quickly before I up and run away
