

In a City

Satellites

I live in a city but I don't speak the language
But everybody speaks mine
Not the best environment for a paranoid mind
I live in a city
But I don't know the history
But fortunately it doesn't know mine
But I guess it's just a matter of time Will you call my name when I am gone?
Will you fly my flag, will you sing my song?
Would you even care if I'm not there?
Would you scream out loud that I make you proud?
My son I go back to the city that I owned as a small boy
But the streets they don't remember me and they don't care
Can't have been that much to remember me for Will you call my name when I am gone?
Will you fly my flag, will you sing my song?
Would you even care if I'm not there?
Would you scream out loud that I make you proud?
