Leave Your Room Behind

Camouflage

Solitude
I wake up by your side
I understood
There's a place beyond our time
I loved you
I love youMy soul screams
Wish I could give all back what I took
Is it real?
Am I blind?
When I leave your room behindMy soul screams
Wish I could give all back what I took
Is it real?
Am I blind?
When I leave your room behind
When I leave your room behind
When I leave your room behindSilently
We cross the hidden line
And finally, moments here to kiss goodbye
I loved you
I love youMy soul screams
Wish I could give all back what I took
Is it real?
Am I blind?
When I leave your room behindMy soul screams
Wish I could give all back what I took
Is it real ?
Am I blind?When I leave your room behind
When I leave your room behind
When I leave your room behind
When I leave your room behindSolitude
Understood
Believing the feeling that I am receiving
In face of the fact that there's no turning back
Believing the feeling that I am receiving
In face of the factMy soul screams
Wish I could give all back what I took
Is it real ?
Am I blind?

When I leave your room behindMy soul screams
Wish I could give all back what I took
Is it real?
Am I blind?
When I leave your room behind
When I leave your room behind
When I leave your room behind
When I leave your room behind
