

Drug Lord

Helmet

The air you breathe
You suck the life out of me
Your mouth moves like
Somethin' shakin' loose God knows these insults
Don't even phase you now Don't get comfortable
Start thinkin'
I still believe you now
I know you're lying I'd take my death
Before I'd let you win
I am removed, there's nothin'
Left to prove You're down, I don't care
You know, this life is unfair Don't get comfortable
Start thinkin'
I still believe you now
I know you're lying
I know you're lying, I know you lie If I believe you now then I'm to blame
But I know what you are So don't get comfortable
Start thinkin'
I don't realize it now
I know you're lying
I know you're lying, I know you lie You lie
You lie
You lie
