

I Want You Tonight

The Cerny Brothers

i kissed you by the pool outside when the party was about to die everyone was drunk in bed but we were under the starry spread

and i want you tonight

we looked up at the moon lights went out in the hotel room feet were bare in the parking lot this don't need as second thought i took your hand one last time to show you that i meant it then all the walls we're gonna climb we'll jump right out and walk on air

and i want you tonight
and i want you tonight

you are magic
under moonlight
shooting stars
i feel

you are thunder
under streetlights
pouring rain
i love (yes, i do)

i was laying right by you sun coming up through the blinds at noon i won't drive back to LA and i just wanna hear you say:

i want you tonight

don't you close your door on me tonight (x4)

ooh (x4)
