

You Chose Me

The Scott Brothers

How do I describe the way I see you through me eyes
It's like the first time every time when you touch me
How else can I say that you were worth the wait
And I'm a better man today because you love me Ooh, you're my best friend
Ooh, you're my champion
You're so beautiful, got a heart of gold, and I can't believe
Out of all the guys in the whole wide world
You chose me, you chose me
Your life is just so fun
You're the royal queen of puns
You dance to your own drum like no one's watching
You're my missing puzzle piece
You're the only air I breathe
Without you next to me life would be boring Ooh, you're my best friend
Ooh, you're my champion
You're so beautiful, got a heart of gold, and I can't believe
Out of all the guys in the whole wide world
You chose me, you chose me To spend your life with me
To be my wife
And every day I let you know
Ooh, you're my best friend
Ooh, you're my champion
You're so beautiful, got a heart of gold, and I can't believe
Out of all the guys in the whole wide world
You chose me, you chose me
