

Licking Cream

Skunk Anansie

Corrupt my hope
In joyous Hell
Between the lines
That place that smells I wish you weren't so beautiful in my eyes
(Crawling down your spine to make you stay)
I wish you weren't so beautiful in my eyes
(Covering your eyes to make you pay) Beyond the high
Lies burning eyes
Crashed down to soil
Fucked up and coiled I wish you weren't so beautiful in my eyes
(Crawling down your spine to make you stay)
I wish you weren't so beautiful in my eyes
(Covering your eyes to make you play) Too beautiful
Too beautiful You want to feel it
But you can't reveal that
You conceived the meaning
And caress the demon All those callous eyes
How they infect your world
So you pretend to reason
But you've lost your soul I wish you weren't so beautiful in my eyes
(Crawling down your spine to make you stay)
I wish you weren't so beautiful in my eyes
(Covering your eyes to make you fly) You shouldn't be so beautiful in my eyes
(Crawling down your spine to make you stay)
I wish you weren't so beautiful in my eyes
(Covering your eyes to make you fly) Too beautiful
Too beautiful
Too beautiful
