

Future Mixtape For The Art Kids

Beach Slang

Play it loud

Play it fast

Play me something that will always last

Play it tough

Play it quiet

Play me something that might save my life
We're not lost, we are dying in style
We're not fucked, we are fucking alive
I hope I never die
Stick your heart on your sleeve

If it breaks, stitch it on to me

Bash it back into shape

You might be cracked, but I won't let you break
We're not lost, we are dying in style
We're not fucked, we are fucking alive
I hope you never die
A generation waits to bleed

For broken kids no one needs

There is heaven in these streets

There is heaven in these streets

I'm with you

Are you with me?
We're not lost, we are dying in style

We're not fucked, we are fucking alive
