

In The Bed

Qwote

I snuggled down In The Bed smoking a cigarette
I'm thinking about you... what are you doing?? last night was something special... that is what you said
I'm like a blushing bride...oooh... inside mystery women

I have to get some sleep but everything's so deep Can't stop to think of you... It was amazing!
I want to call my friend. She always lends a hand.
Maybe I'll start from scratch, oooh, once again.

Wait a minute. There is always time to learn.
Just a minute. My mind is clear
Let's catch a new train

I'm looking in a mirror, I never saw this glow before
I need to see you soon. I am burning!
You satisfied a desire like no one before
I see your face appear... oooh, even smoke is so clear

Wait a minute. There is always more to learn
Just a minute. My mind is clear, Let's catch a new train.
Wait a minute. There is always a chance to pray
Maybe just a minute. It's not that long a wait
Just a moment, that change all your ways,
'Cause I awoke for you and now we know that life can be in full bloom, and so beautiful

Just you and me, now we know
That life can be like never before.
Just you and me, now we know
That love can be full of glow that life can be... so beautiful...
