Angel Tonight

Foreigner

I've been walking a little bit taller
My problems seem a whole lot smaller
And I've been thinking that the reason must be youWhen I'm feeling the tears start to swell up
I look at you and go right ahead and well up
'Cause you put your hand in mine and I'm in love
I'm in heavenly loveYou're my angel tonight
You make everything all right
You're my angel tonight
And you help me find the light I lost againLa, la, la, la, la, la, la
(All again)
La, la, la, la, la, la, laThe world seems a little bit better
Every time you and I are together and I'm
But this feeling is gonna keep revolvingTonight I feel the rain on my shoulders
And I imagine that I should feel colder but I know
That I'll be with you when I get home
So I'll hang onYou're my angel tonight
You make everything all right
You're my angel tonight
And you help me find the light I lost againLa, la, la, la, la, la, la
(All again)
La, la, la, la, la, la, laAnd when we find ourselves
Where we started from
We'll go back and start the clock
All over againYou're my summer
And my winter
You're my every reasonYou're my angel tonight
You make everything all right
You're my angel tonight
And you help me find the light I lost againYou're my angel tonight
You make everything all right
You're my angel tonight
And you help me find the light I lost againLa, la, la, la, la, la, la
(All again)
La, la, la, la, la, la, la
(All again)La, la, la, la, la, la, la
(All again)
La, la, la, la, la, la, la
