Old Friends

Hindi Zahra

Old friends and young ones
All the angels and preachers became one
And for this heaven, we live in
Reality may come inAnd as long as you feel and breathe
As long as you live and see
This is love without trouble
Love without any soul'Cause your first passion
And your first dreamsDo you remember this vision, oh
With your inner breath
Can you see it coming from so deep
Your first passion and your first dream
As you're going deep
