Did You Get My Message? (Live from Montalvo)

Jason Mraz

Did you get my message, the one I left
While I was trying to convince everything
That I meant in a minute or less when I called to confess
And make all of my stresses go bye-byeDid you get my message, you did not guess
'Cause if you did you would have called me with your sweet intent
And we could give it a rest
'stead of beating my breast
Making all of the pressure go sky-highDo you ever wonder what happens to the words that we send Do they bend, do they break from the flight that they take
And come back together again with a whole new meaning
In a brand new sense, completely unrelated to the one I sentDid you get my message, oooh oooh ooooh
Did you get my message, oooh oooh ooooh
Did you get my message, yeah, oooh oooh ooooh hoooUh oh, where did it go, must have bopped past your phone
And fallen right outta the windowOoh well, how can I tell?
Shoulda called the operator maybe she know the info
But whether or not my message you got was too much or a lot to replyWhy not try this for a fact
Should you ever come back I'd relax and feel relieved
Before my panic attackAhh hooo oooh
Did you get my message, oooh oooh ooooh
Did you get my message, oooh oooh ooooh
Did you get my message, yeah oooh oooh ooooh hoooDid you get my message, the one that I left
While I was trying to convince everything that I meantNow the moment is passed
Not much sand in the glass and I'm standing to lose my mind
Do you ever wonder what happens to the words that we send
So they bend, do they break from the flight that they take
And come back together again with a whole new meaning to the matter of our love defense and please be sympathetice to the time I spentDid you get my message, oooh oooh ooooh
Did you get my message, oooh oooh ooooh
Did you get my message, yeah oooh oooh ooooh hooo
Did you get my messageNo I didn't hear a word you said
Did you get my messageNo I'm not gonna believe your lies anymore
Did you get my message that I want to reconnect with you
Did you get my messageI can hear you say your coming but I don't hear
Why did you get the message love ?
That I want to get back with you
Did you get my message loveThat I want to reconnect with you
Why did you get the message love ?

Did you get my messageThat I want to reconnect with you
