

Manqueller Man

Fucked Up

Innocent wives all alone with the knives put the kids to bed turn the world on it's head spreading wide to provide stick the madness inside come and wallow the girth give birth to the earth manqueller man two sides are aligned be entwined or maligned be sick or be well and still go to hell be a saint or a stain be a boon or a bane every act just a truce with the damned reproduce the scum of the earth manqueller man lowest from birth manqueller man kin of the damned manqueller man no one understands manqueller man quarantine the obscene and the slime from sublime be a stick or a stone give the violence a home be a goat or a lamb a coward or a man there's by one path to take to end up in the same place
