

Yard Of Blonde Girls

Jeff Buckley

Through the yard, through the yard of blonde girls
Through the river and the sea, gold sharks glittering
A tree of white breaks the earth
The streets where Lola played Very sexy, very sexy, okay, okay
Fear we may come
Fear we may come
Fear we may come
Fear we may come
So run, run, run, run, run, run, run It's in your heart, it's in your art, your beauty
Even in this world of lies, there's purity
You've got innocence in your eyes
Even in this world of lies, you're still hopeful Very sexy, okay, okay
Fear we may come
Fear we may come
Fear we may come
Fear we may come
So run, run, run, run, run, run, run Through the yard, through the yard of blonde girls
Through the river and the sea, gold sharks glittering
A tree of white breaks the earth
The streets where Lola played Very sexy, very sexy, okay, okay
Fear we may come
Fear we may come
Fear we may come
Fear we may come
So run, run, run, run, run, run, run
