When I Was Your Man

Rod Stewart

I remember just like it was yesterday
A summer's night, a small cafe
We laughed so much, we almost cried
Then I heard you say
I think I'm fallin' in love with you
I said, "Yeah, I'm the same way too"
I let you in
You danced inside this old heart of mine
I've realized baby, you and I could never be
But I just wanna thank you for the memories
When I was your man, when I was your man
When I was your man, everything in my world
Seemed good and right
Hoo hoo hoo
I remember each and every day with you
And every way I made love to you
The way you made each day special
God I miss you so
You made me dance, you made me sing
You showed me what happiness
Loving could bring
The way we spent last summer together
Seemed so far away
Excuse me baby, if I sound a little blue
The best times I ever had, I spent with you
When I was your man, when I was your man
When I was your man, everything in my world
Seemed good and right
Hoo hoo hoo
I'm tryin' hard to carry on
But the thought of you still lingers on
The robe you wore
Still hangs behind my bedroom door
Your dress rehearsals, and schoolgirl pranks
Your saxophone lessons, your cowboy hats
The way we planned our lives together
Seems so far away
When I was your man, when I was your man
When I was your man, everything in this world

Seemed good and right
When I was your man, when I was your man
When I was your man everything in this world
Seemed good and right
Yeah, yeah, yeah
