you're the one for me when i think about you baby you're too perfect to be you're a fact in itself but now that i see you
standing close to me
and i can even touch
if i wanted to you're far less real than realbut now that i see you
standing close to me
you far more real in my fantasyno different from how it was but my way of seeing things changed when fiction turns into reality will it fit the impression?
far more real than real
a sunny day
after a night of snow all nature blanketed in white i whispered to my soul
baby baby more real than in my fantasy
