

Acts Of Man

Frightened Rabbit

I am that dickhead in the kitchen giving wine to your best girl's glass I am the amateur pornographer unpleasant publisher by hand not here, not here
heroic acts of man
not here, not here
heroic acts of man
I see the stumbling pinstriped trouser flecks of sick on and off his shoe part of the fatty british avarice who lives in the houses around you
not here, not here
heroic acts of man
not here, not here
heroic acts of man
Let's all crowd 'round the cowering body throw stocky fingers bricks and stones let's promise every girl we marry we'll always love them when we probably won't while the knight in shitty armor rips a drunk out of her dress one man tears into another hides a coward's heart in a lion's chest Man, he breeds although he shoudn't he's breeding just because he cums acts the father for a minute till the worst insticts return

not here, not here
heroic acts of man
not here, not here
heroic acts of man
I have never wanted more to be a man to build a house around you but I am just like all the rest of them sorry, selfish, trying to improve I'm here, I'm here
not heroic, but I try
