

Orgy

It's about this constant addiction
 About this greater demand
 As I reach for the laugh with only seconds left
 I'm getting deeperIt's about this constant addiction
 About this greater demand
 As I reach for the laugh with only seconds left
 I'm getting deeperAnd did you say that you were happy?
 'Cause though I leave you alone
 I need the push to allude to things I have to say
 To what I have to sayAnd there's a time and a place we hide behind
 An alternate face
 And when the freak needs a nurse you comply
 With the fools in mindAnd there's a time and a place we hide behind
 An alternate face
 We're the people who fuck with your mind
 When you sleep insideI can take you away
 To a better place, to a better time
 I can take you away
 To a better placeLet's talk about you and me tonight
 And 'cause I'd really like to take you home
 Let's talk about you and me tonight
 'Cause I need the push to allude to things I have to sayAnd there's a time and a place we hide behind
 An alternate face
 And when the freak needs a nurse you comply
 With the fools in mindAnd there's a time and a place we hide behind
 An alternate face
 We're the people who fuck with your minds
 When you sleep insideAnd remember the times that we've shown you the way
 And remember the times that we've shown you the way
 And remember the times that we've shown you the way
 And remember the times that we've shown you the way
