

The Sound

Mary Mary

I never said a word but I know my Father heard me
I stopped talking 'bout it 'cause now it's time to shout it
Fifty thousand problems and words couldn't solve them That's the sound of victory and
That's the sound of no defeat and
That's the sound of holding on and
That's the sound of staying strong I can't do nothing but scream what I'm feeling
God knows my heart and I know that He hears it, yeah
Now let me hear you say Never said a word but I know my Father heard me
I stopped talking 'bout it 'cause now it's time to shout it
Fifty thousand problems and words couldn't solve them That's the sound of victory and
That's the sound of no defeat and
That's the sound of holding on and
That's the sound of staying strong I can't do nothing but scream what I'm feeling
God knows my heart and I know that He hears it, yeah I think I wanna holla, is it alright if I holla?
Sometimes I need to holla, hey holla
Can you hear me if I moan? Is it alright if I moan?
Mmm, moan, mmm, moan Somebody saved? Somebody saved?
Somebody saved? Somebody saved? I love the Lord, He heard my cry
And pitied every, every groan
Every groan, every groan
Every groan, every groan, yeah
