Native Construct

I am SilenceI left it all to escape that misguided place

I left it all to erase that familiar face

Now surely I have nearly reached an end

Soon I'll be all alone in my own Quiet WorldI'll mold a world to accept my condition (my condition will be odd no more)

I'll show it that we can be broken and at peace

I'll make my world understand my condition (my condition will be odd no more)

I'll embrace my sinister side (drown out all the noise)

Begin a new lifeCa-Ra-Zu Ni-Mu Pa-Tu

He has created us from a

Point of view we did not choose

We are all broken, singing

Ca-Ra-Zu...I can finally feel

That I belong

After all the shame and pain

My Quiet World is now completeBehold my new dominion

You will understandAt last they all hear my voice

And this will make them see

That there is no being

In this world that will dare defy me
