

Immigration Game

Michelle Malone

Jesus sitting in Alabama waitin on a train
Jesus sitting in Alabama waitin on a train
Got all his possessions in a walmart sack
He got to leave town and cant come back
Jesus A victim of the immigration gameHe had to take his children out of school
Afraid to leave his house to go buy food
He never been to jail, he's felony free
He aint no different from you and me
You talk bout your love for your fellow man
While you preach racism across the landJesus sitting in Alabama waitin on a train
Jesus sitting in Alabama waitin on a train
Got all his possessions in a walmart sack
He got to leave town and cant come back
Jesus A victim of the immigration gamePolice pulled him over on his way to work
Brown skin and hair, they made him hit the dirt
Asked him for proof of his citizenship
He had no papers or state permit they locked him up and took his kids away
Now they're American born wards of the state
