Kiss You

iio

I'd wake up and make love to you if I had you
I would touch you so much but I'm not allowed to What I hate is to wait but in this case I'm patient
I'm discreet, I'm not weak, I just need the momentHe wants me, he wants me not
I want everything he's gotIf I leaned over and tried to kiss you
Would I be wrong after so long to kiss you?
Would you pretend we're only friends if I kissed you?
At least I can dream of you in a scene when I kiss youOn one hand we are friends
But still my mind, it wanders
Through the side streets and alleys
I just keep growing fonderHe wants me, he wants me not
I want everything he's gotIf I leaned over and tried to kiss you
Would I be wrong after so long to kiss you?
Would you pretend we're only friends if I kissed you?
At least I can dream of you in a scene when I kiss youHe wants me, he wants me not
I want everything he's got
He wants me, he wants me not
I want everything he's gotTo stop me is not easy
Can't keep a lion from hunting
I'm focused, I won't miss
There's no control of some thingsIf I leaned over and tried to kiss you
Would I be wrong after so long to kiss you?
Would you pretend we're only friends if I kissed you?
At least I can dream of you in a scene when I kiss youI kissed you, can I kiss you?
