Sing Tomorrow's Praise

Asobi Seksu

You've left without making a sound
Lay your heavy hammer down
For an ocean's not a simple way outTied with vicious bears
Begging for futures right awayTrees bend down and sway
These leaves were falling anyway
There's no time to walk away from this dayGlowing reasons fray
Chase these things that end this way
Whisper words of faith and set out of placeTied with vicious bears
Waiting for futures right awayEscape myself for one day
I'm not one for taking blame
Embers singe and burn me out of this chaseSing tomorrow's praise
Every day
Whispered words of faith and said out of place
