Dismember

Spoon/Britt Daniel

If she had half a mind, well, she might
Not take this song quite so seriously
So put the notebook down and take off your dress
I've never seen it before and I said
(Dismember)
That's what you are (Dismember)
You're a bad guy
(Dismember)
That's what you do
To win sugar
(Dismember)
C'mon, let's go outside
(Dismember)

You know we can go sit out in your car
(Dismember)
And get cut down
Cut off, cut down
Well, I was at your show, old man
(Dismember, dismember)
I couldn't watch you at all, old man
(Dismember, dismember)
I couldn't take my eyes off you
(Dismember, dismember)
Cut down, cut off
Cut down, cut off
