

Waves of Loneliness

Jon Bellion

It's so empty right where your head sleeps
And she said I still smell your cologne in my bed sheets So I said I'm just texting you to see how you're holding on
And she said some days I'm okay but when I'm alone it hurts because Loneliness comes in waves, waves, waves
Loneliness comes in waves, waves, waves When did love letters get lost in translation? (translation, translation)
I heard you took the train from Penn station (Penn station, Penn station) So I said I'm just texting you to see how you're holding on
And she said some days I'm okay but when I'm alone it hurts because Loneliness comes in waves, waves, waves
Loneliness comes in waves, waves, waves
Loneliness comes in waves, waves, waves
Loneliness comes in waves, waves, waves
I have to tape my mouth
I want to ask you questions
Like do you sleep alone
I heard there's friends you rest with
So I text her friend
Like tell me where this man's at
She says you got some balls
You don't deserve to ask that Oh no they gotta be lying I'm dying to know
But I know you're not mine
So I can't say shit So I said I'm just texting you to see how you're holding on
And she said some days I'm okay but when I'm alone it hurts because
Loneliness comes in waves, waves, waves
Loneliness comes in waves, waves, waves
Loneliness comes in waves, waves, waves
Loneliness comes in waves, waves, waves
Loneliness comes in waves, waves, waves
Loneliness comes in waves, waves, waves
