Walk the Line

Stuck Mojo

I live for the huntI thirst for the killI sleep where I will
I lust and I eatLove the thrill - take the pillStanding still and growing ill
Gun owner and I carryCarjack proof so punks be wary
Seeds we sew - to and froCompromised and here we goOnly the righteous on the light sideChanging seasons along for the rideI search for purpose, do you?
Fear surrenderedWalk the line, come one and do itWalk the line, don't act like you knew itI can be a motherfuckin' dickGot a temper and it'll flare up real quickTalk the shit - run the lipNervous tick - hear the click
Emperor of this worldKing of the planet
Sinner by tradeCreature by habitWant it all - never fallHave the gall - climb the wall
