

Don't Be Dumb

Bizzy Bone

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Don't be dumb, ignorance was bliss
And this is something that I won't miss and this is
Don't be dumb, ignorance was bliss
And this is something that I won't miss and this is Don't be dumb, ignorance was bliss
And this is something that I won't miss and this is
Don't be dumb, ignorance was bliss
And this is something that I won't miss and this is See, I went down and dirty and she liked the sucky, sucky
And liked it all in her tummy and started askin', for money
It was over, off to another one, never leave my house
Without packin', a gun Jumped in the Benzino, while Nikki was in L.A. smokin', primo
She said no one could make her cum, 'til she came met Gambino
I ain't need no introduction, I'm that Bone, Bone, Bone, Bone
And I don't give a fuck what you got goin' on I left Watts, gold Zenith tootin', while shootin' my show
Is that cocaine? Boo, you gotta go
I miss her though, back on the ho stroll, drinkin' and losin' control
Got back to Cleveland and hooked back up with Mo, Mo Pretty young thug stress, who loved the thug shit
And on the lo, lo, I like that, even rolled the getaway
'Cause I ain't that ordinary thug, go on all about that gun play Soon as she popped up with a baby, drivin' me crazy
Watched her push it out, cut the cord, little Christian
Love you, baby Don't be dumb, ignorance was bliss
And this is something that I won't miss and this is
Don't be dumb, ignorance was bliss
And this is something that I won't miss and this is Don't be dumb, ignorance was bliss
And this is something that I won't miss and this is So, now we havin' sex again, hittin' some different levels
The baby's lookin' Mexican, I look at you like the Devil
My sisters only using you 'cause I never abused you
So shes doin' it for me, only if you knew, boo And plus, she fucked Layzie, was makin' eyes with Krayzie
And old Flesh had her first, but I'm that one that made it work
You can kiss my ass, hear my laugh
Hear me now and listen later, anyway, I'm still the playa On the real bitch, you hurt me, if that's any consolidation

You was just another temptation, on to the next one
That's enough of her, my belt is just the way I like it
Don't bite it and you can get it when you want to You love the way I ate that, your girl hated that
But don't be dumb, I guess it's too late for that Don't be dumb, ignorance was bliss
And this is something that I won't miss and this is
Don't be dumb, ignorance was bliss
And this is something that I won't miss and this is Don't be dumb, ignorance was bliss
And this is something that I won't miss and this is I'm cummin', tellin' me you love little Bizzy God don't like ugly and he ain't too fine or pretty, is he?
Oh, and I seen you hangin' with sissies
All that sinnin', women with, actin' feminine But you said he a sho' thang, that'll make him a better friend
But then again, how could I judge?
But they still can't kick it with the thug
Check all the glasses and check the toilet seat for bugs As soon as you passed it, I was high enough
I ain't a fascist 'cause I don't like to kick it with fagots
Do yo thang, and I hope that God helps you
On your quest for thangs
Rain, rain go away, come back another day I don't love them hos, I don't love them hos
And the moral of this story is, don't love them hos
If you searchin' for somethin', you searchin' for a woman
You searchin' for a man but through your search
You gonna come through a lot of obstacles A lot of twists, a lot of turns
But you gotta be able to taste it to know what's sweet
To know what's sour, to know what's good, to know what's bad
But fuck all that get back to the chorus Don't be dumb, ignorance was bliss
And this is something that I won't miss and this is
Don't be dumb, ignorance was bliss
And this is something that I won't miss and this is Don't be dumb, ignorance was bliss
And this is something that I won't miss and this is
Don't be dumb
