Give Me a Sign (Original Mix) [feat. Manu-L]

Remady

Give me a sign
If you love your life
Now is the time
So throw your hands up high
So throw your hands up highJust give me a signGive me a sign
If you love your life
Now is the time
So throw your hands up highLove the life you live
Something's got to give
Live the life you love
Like you can't get enough
Like you can't get enoughLove the life you live
Live the life you love
Like you can't get enough
Like you can't get enoughToo much to die for
Not enough to live for
It doesn't matter how hard it seems to be
Now I do understand
It is the way until the endYou are lost without your dreams
You are lost without your dreams
Give me a sign
If you love your life
Now is the time
So throw your hands up highLove the life you live
Something's got to give
Live the life you love
Like you can't get enoughLove the life you live
Live the life you loveGive me a sign
If you love your life
Now is the time
So throw your hands up high
So throw your hands up highDouble your, double your time
So low
