My Secret Flame

The Mavericks

You'll never know
I'll never tell
I've learned to hide
My feelings well
My heart beats fast
When it hears your name
And you'll always be
My secret flame
You've got someone
Who holds your heart
To say anythin'
Would not be smart
But my love for you
Will never change
And you'll always be
My secret flame
I have this dream
Of me and you

I pray someday, some way
It will come true
So I'll trust in time
You'll feel the same
And then you'll be
My secret flame
I have this dream
Of me and you
And I pray someday, some way
It will come true
So I sleep alone
But not in vain
And each night I hold
My secret flame
And you'll always be
My secret flame
