Run

Gossamer

A young obsession, never should have let it live
Something long forgotten, a gift you couldn?t give
And it?s all so real ? dark and whole and new
You who never felt it unfolding right before you

And of a private desire, my hunger and my pain
Fearing what you shouldn?t know
Conscience forever stained

Run Run Run Run Run
(x2)

And there?s something inside
That makes you run
Wishing we were broken
Wishing we were done
(x2)

Run Run Run Run Run
(x2)

Revealing all of yourself
For the very first time
Mind incense overflow, connection so sublime
And it?s coming closer ? torn roses in your hand
A time to let them fall and break the gauze-like strand
A young obsession
(Never should have let it live)
Something long forgotten
A gift you couldn?t give

Run Run Run Run Run
(x2)

And there?s something inside
That makes you run
Wishing we were broken
Wishing we were done
(x2)

Run Run Run Run Run
(x3)
